CHURCH NOTES

I would like to thank the congregation for your participation in our worship services over the past year. God has richly blessed our congregation with talents and willing hearts to use them. There are many aspects of worship, and each requires a different gift. Some offerings are visible, some are only seen by one or two people, but God notices all of them. As we move into 2010, the pulpit scarf is now back to green, indicating a time of new life and growth. May God continue to bless us, as together we grow in the grace and knowledge of our Savior. To Him be the glory! (2 Peter 3:18) Kim Persenaire
